2007 National Women's Conference Money Matters, Part 2

Whenever we find a theme that resonates with the members, we try to bring you additional information on it. Last year's theme "Money Matters" was one of the most successful discussions that we have had and the workshops were all filled to capacity.

This year's Women's Conference theme is Money Matters, Part 2. We will invite a panel of experts to continue advising us on handling money, investing money and building wealth.

Tickets for our Awards Luncheon are $50. and should be purchased when you register for the convention.

The nomination form for the Addie L. Wyatt Award will be included in your convention package. Please send in your nominations by April 2, 2007. (see information below)

Chapter Awards are open. Each chapter may nominate one person to receive recognition for outstanding service. Chapter awards are due by May 1st.

The Trail Blazers roster is open for all retirees. Please submit the names and a short bio of your recent retirees.

We will have a newsletter ready for the convention, if you have news of interest to our members please submit it me by March 1, 2007.

Our annual meeting will be held on Sunday, May 27, 2007. The time and room will be posted. Please join us as we continue to plan and discuss women's issues and how we can continue to provide timely information to all.

Send all nominations for the Addie Wyatt Award, Chapter Awards, Trail Blazers and any questions and comments to me, Anita Patterson, Chair at 1431 Washington Blvd. #2205, Detroit, MI. 48226, 313-964-4410, email apatterson138@sbcglobal.net.

See you in Chicago.
